Detention and Dreams (A Hetalia Fan Fiction)

👁 33 ✓ 0 ★ 2

Chapter 1 by Madeline Of Elves

(Timo Väinämöinen is the name I use for Finland- I apologize if it seems strange to you!)

Timo was the ideal student. Hard working, cheerful, always happy to engage and move forward class discussion with grace. You would never think he frequented detention so often, that the teacher running it was his friend.

However, with this little Finn's utter devotion to his friends came with an equally intense urge to protect them from any harm, mental, physical, emotional... And his friends were not quite the 'stand up for themselves' type, so he was all too happy to fight in their stead.

It would make a comical sight, a short, chubby, blond-haired pretty-boy, smiling sweetly at a group of much bigger, much meaner looking bullies as he told them to kindly fuck off. And if that didn't do the trick- He was glad to throw a few well-placed punches.

He wouldn't even try to deny that the fights happened, simply checking himself into the detention after school, even if none of the teachers had found out.

A code of honor, almost
